EQUITIES MARKET.

The Nigerian Equities market closed this week trading session in downward trend. The bourse shed 2.40% (WoW) on active sell pressure. The benchmark index finished lower at 24,719.27 points. The bears maintained dominance of market breath as more equities closed in red in all but the fourth trading sessions of the week.

NSEASI opened this week's trading session trending southward with -2.68%, it sustained the trend for the second and third traded sessions shedding 0.04% and 0.01% respectively. The fourth trading session recorded a positive outing with 0.44% gain while the last trading session saw a decline of 0.11%. The Market capitalization also tilted downwards by 2.41% in the week under review. NSE sector indices also headed south this week.

Transaction levels measured by aggregate volume and value declined by 0.25% and 0.18% respectively in contrast to last week's closing levels. In the week under review, a total of 1.39bn shares valued at N7.33bn were exchanged in 14,789 number of deals compared to 1.11bn shares valued at N6.20bn exchanged in 14,963 deals recorded in the previous trading week.

The Equities market took a negative posture this week on account of investor sell pressure amidst waning demands. The market will likely continue in this quiet mood in the coming week with low key activities, albeit investors are to take advantage and accumulate fundamentally sound symbols with long term investment outlook.
