EQUITIES MARKET.

The Nigerian Equities market rebound to record positive YTD returns as investors cheer CBN's new FX policy. The bourse inched up by 740bps (WoW) as most large cap stocks closed in green territory. The benchmark index climbed to a new height of 29,000 points band. The market breadth finished positive with more equities closing in green save for the first trading day of the week.

NSEASI opened the week trending southwards with -0.47%, it continued in red for the second trading session dropping -0.26%. The trend however reversed on the third to fifth trading sessions with daily gains of 3.17%, 2.14% and 2.66% respectively. The Market capitalization also added 7.40%. NSE sector indices all closed upbeat save for NSEASEM which shed 0.17%.

Transaction levels measured by aggregate volume and value recorded a significant improvement of 125% and 159% respectively in contrast to last week's closing levels. In the week under review, a total of 2.16bn shares valued at N20.40bn were exchanged in 23,932 number of deals compared to 0.96bn shares valued at N7.87bn exchanged in 17,102 deals recorded in the previous trading week.

The Equities market recorded three days of bullish rally this week on back of new FX policy to bring the year to date performance of the bench mark index to positive stance. We expect the rally to continue into the coming week as investors applaud the news of the release of the framework for a flexible foreign exchange.
